Explanatory Notes

Most APH Books Are Now Made When You Order Them

Most of our textbook enlargements and braille transcriptions listed in this catalog are produced “on demand.” You demand it—we produce it! In the case of large or enlarged type books, receiving publisher permissions and preparing the masters for production are completed ahead of time through our Early Start Program. APH then produces the “hard copy” upon demand—YOUR demand!

Type Sizes of Large Type and Enlarged Type Books

The type size of books enlarged by APH is dependent on the type size of the regular print books from which our reproductions are made. The following chart provides examples of enlarged type based on an image area of 8 1/2 x 11 inches. The font shown is Helvetica.

If the page size is 8 1/2 x 11 inches and contains 8 point type,

It will enlarge to between 10 and 12 point.

If the page size is 8 1/2 x 11 inches and contains 10 point type,

It will enlarge to 14 point.

If the page size is 8 1/2 x 11 inches and contains 12 point type,

It will enlarge to between 16 and 17 point.

Note: Because of wide variations in type font design, characters with the same point size may not have exactly the same physical size when typefaces are compared. For example:

The letter “o” in 18 point Helvetica measures
0.141 of an inch in height

The letter “o” in 18 point Times measures
0.125 of an inch in height

This difference in physical size may be even larger than in the above example, depending on the two typefaces being compared.

Contents of This Catalog

This is a combined catalog containing virtually all book titles offered for sale by APH. The titles offered largely consist of textbooks through the 12th grade, although the catalog also contains academic tests, music, materials for parents and professionals, and recreational/supplementary reading titles.

APH offers materials in a variety of media, including:

- Braille Books: These are the traditional, high-quality braille books offered by APH for many years. Listings of braille books in this catalog appear in red ink.
- Large Type and Enlarged Type Books: These books are reproduced from the regular print editions using a xerographic process. Most new APH large type books now have full-color covers that match the regular print editions.

Explanatory Notes, continued:

- Braille/Print/Recorded Books: These books offer a multi-accessible approach for primary students. APH purchases regular textbooks that are colorful and already in large type. We then insert clear plastic braille pages and provide a cassette tape of the book. Listings of braille/print/recorded books in this catalog appear in red ink.
- Recorded Books: These books are recorded on 15/16 ips, 4-track cassette tapes with exacting production standards. They are created by teams of professional narrators, monitors, and proofreaders.
- Regular Print Books: These mostly consist of teacher's manuals and other materials for parents and professionals working with people who are visually impaired.
- Videotapes (VHS): APH videotapes offer a wide range of information. Some tapes are instructional programs, while others are promotional items that introduce APH products and services.

You will be able to identify the medium of any particular book by noting the prefix of the APH catalog number. Here are the catalog number prefixes for each medium:

- Braille Books: 2-, 5-, 6-, Q-, T-, or V- (9th Edition Stanford tests are "V-")

Note: Braille books with a catalog number prefix of "2-" are not available for purchase with Federal Quota funds.

- Braille Music: X-
- Large Type Books and Enlarged Type Books: 4-, F-, L-, or J- (9th Ed. Stanford tests are "F-")
- Braille/Print/Recorded Books: 3-
- Recorded Books: C- or R-
- Regular Print Books: 7-, 8-, or G- (9th Edition Stanford directions are "G-")
- Videotapes: 1-

Organization of This Catalog

Titles are listed according to medium. Within each medium, titles are listed according to school subjects. Within subject categories, titles are arranged alphabetically. There is an index in the rear of the catalog listing book and series titles alphabetically. If you would like to search for an APH book by catalog number (or other parameters), you may use the free Louis™ Database at <http://www.aph.org/>

Materials for Reading Instruction

Changes in the methods of teaching reading and the materials designed to teach reading have blurred the lines between books previously classified as "Basal Readers," "Reading Skills," and "Recreational Reading." In this catalog, we have listed reading materials in the categories "Reading," "Literature," and "Recreational Reading." Please check all three sections for reading instruction materials.

Early Start Large Type Titles

Titles selected for our 1998 Early Start Large Type program are indicated with the word "NEW!" APH has obtained the permissions to reproduce these titles and has the master copies on hand for immediate enlargement.

A Note About Academic Tests

All braille editions of tests listed in this catalog either have a manual available that includes the special directions required for administering the braille edition, or are packaged with such information. If a manual is not listed for a large type edition of a test, that test is merely an enlargement of the regular print test and has not been adapted for people who are visually impaired. For these nonadapted large type tests, all auxiliary materials must be obtained from the test publishers.

APH-DOTS Braille Production Service

The APH Disk Output Transcribing System (APH-DOTS) is a braille production system that expands the list of titles available to students and helps transcribers make their books produced with computers more widely accessible. Transcribers and agencies from across the U.S. submit computer transcription disks to APH. These disks are used to emboss interpoint braille hard copies which are available for purchase. APH-DOTS books are produced with a quick turnaround.

Vacuum Form Braille Titles

The hand-transcribed paper masters for the vacuum form titles listed in this catalog are on permanent, free loan to APH. These books are vacuum formed onto plastic using the paper masters and are then bound, ready for student use.

Grade 2 Braille

All of the books in this listing are embossed in English Braille Grade 2 unless otherwise indicated.

Types of Braille Pages

- Interpoint braille is embossed on both sides of the page with no extra space between lines.
- Interline braille is a method in which each braille line is preceded by a blank line. Braille is embossed on both sides of the page.
- Line for line braille is a method in which the layout of the braille lines on the page corresponds to the layout of the lines on the original print pages.

Prices

Prices are subject to change without notice. "TBA" in the price column means "To Be Announced." Please call toll free at 1-800-223-1839 for pricing on books marked "TBA."

Returns Policy

Please note that large type books (catalog number prefixes 4-, F-, L-, or J-) are not returnable for any reason other than defects. All other APH books are returnable, subject to the APH Returns Policy outlined at the end of this book.

A Note Regarding Academic Tests

Please note: All braille editions of tests either have a manual including the special directions required for administering the brailled edition available, or are packaged with such information.

If a manual is not listed for a large type edition of a test, the test is merely an enlargement of the regular print test and has not been adapted especially for people who are visually impaired. For these, all auxiliary materials must be obtained from the test publishers.

A Note Regarding Recorded Books

Please note: Recorded books appear in two sections of this catalog. They are integrated with the large type and braille books in the first section. Recorded books also appear in their own section toward the rear of the catalog. Our entire collection of recorded titles is reflected in both sections—there is no need to search both sections for a particular title.

Recorded books are indicated by the word “cassette” in their listing and have a catalog number prefix of “C-” or “R-”

The Psychoeducational Assessment of Visually Impaired Persons

This video and the accompanying brochure are targeted toward teachers and school psychologists who have not had experience with people who are visually impaired. Dr. Sharon Bradley-Johnson presents the procedures and benefits of psychoeducational assessments.

But the administrator of the test must first understand the type of information that various tests and procedures provide, and the limitations of that information.

The tape and brochure contain the following sections:

- Good practices in assessing students who are visually impaired
- Steps in preparatory work before testing
- The assessment process
- Group testing
- Materials for testing
- Academic and braille skills tests

Louis: Database of Accessible Materials

The American Printing House for the Blind (APH) has again upgraded the software and hardware for the CARL ET AL Database. We have named this upgraded system “Louis” (pronounced louie) as a celebration and continuation of the work of Louis Braille. We are very pleased with the changes, since we feel they make the database easier for current users as well as opening it up to a whole new group of individuals.

Louis™, the Database of Accessible Materials for People Who Are Blind or Visually Impaired currently lists locations of titles from approximately 200 volunteer, nonprofit, government, and commercial agencies for the blind and visually impaired. There are listings for over 135,000 titles in braille, large print, sound recording, and computer file formats. As with CARL ET AL, users can search Louis by ISBN, title, author, publisher, copyright year, subject, medium, or keyword. Many searching choices are offered in a “fill in the blank” type format. We have made, and will continue to make, modifications to improve usability and speech accessibility.

We currently are offering three ways to access Louis: through the Internet, by direct dial-in, and through our telephone reference service.

The Louis Internet Interface

Via the Internet, go to the APH website at <http://www.aph.org/> Choose the link “Search Louis”. This access is free of charge.

The Louis Direct Dial-in Interface

We are aware that not everyone who needs access to Louis has Internet access, or perhaps their speech software does not work with Internet access. We are also offering a direct dial-in interface to Louis for such situations. We provide free, pre-configured telecommunications software and a toll-free line for direct dial-in. The software we have chosen for telecommunications is CTE (known to individual users as COMMO), an efficient, user friendly telecommunications software written especially for use with speech synthesizers. If you would like to receive this software, please mail or fax a request to Christine Anderson, Resource Services Manager, American Printing House for the Blind. The fax number is 1-502-899-2363. This access, just like the Internet access, is free of charge.

Louis Telephone Reference Service

We have always offered a telephone reference service for accessing this data. We will continue to do so. If you do not have computer access, you can call 1-800-223-1839 toll free and ask for Resource Services. If you have more than five titles that need to be searched, you can fax the request to 1-502-899-2363, attention Resource Services. The Resource Services staff will be happy to help you find your books and materials. Telephone searches are free of charge.

Access to Louis is free to all individuals; however, we are asking for an annual contribution of $300.00 from major agencies and schools that submit titles and search Louis. We hope that you will, as you always have, continue to support this valuable service.

APH InSights Annual Juried Art Competition and Exhibition

Each year APH sponsors a juried art competition and exhibition designed exclusively to showcase the talents of blind and visually impaired artists of all ages. We receive hundreds of entries from across the U.S. and around the world. From these submissions, works are chosen to be exhibited at APH's Annual Meeting and other sites. Award winners in 10 categories are also selected.

Submissions to APH InSights encompass a wide range of two- and three-dimensional media, including sculpture, pottery, weavings, computer art, prints, and paintings. Entries are judged by a professional or professionals from the field of the arts. Artwork is judged on originality of concept, expressive use of media, and artistic excellence.

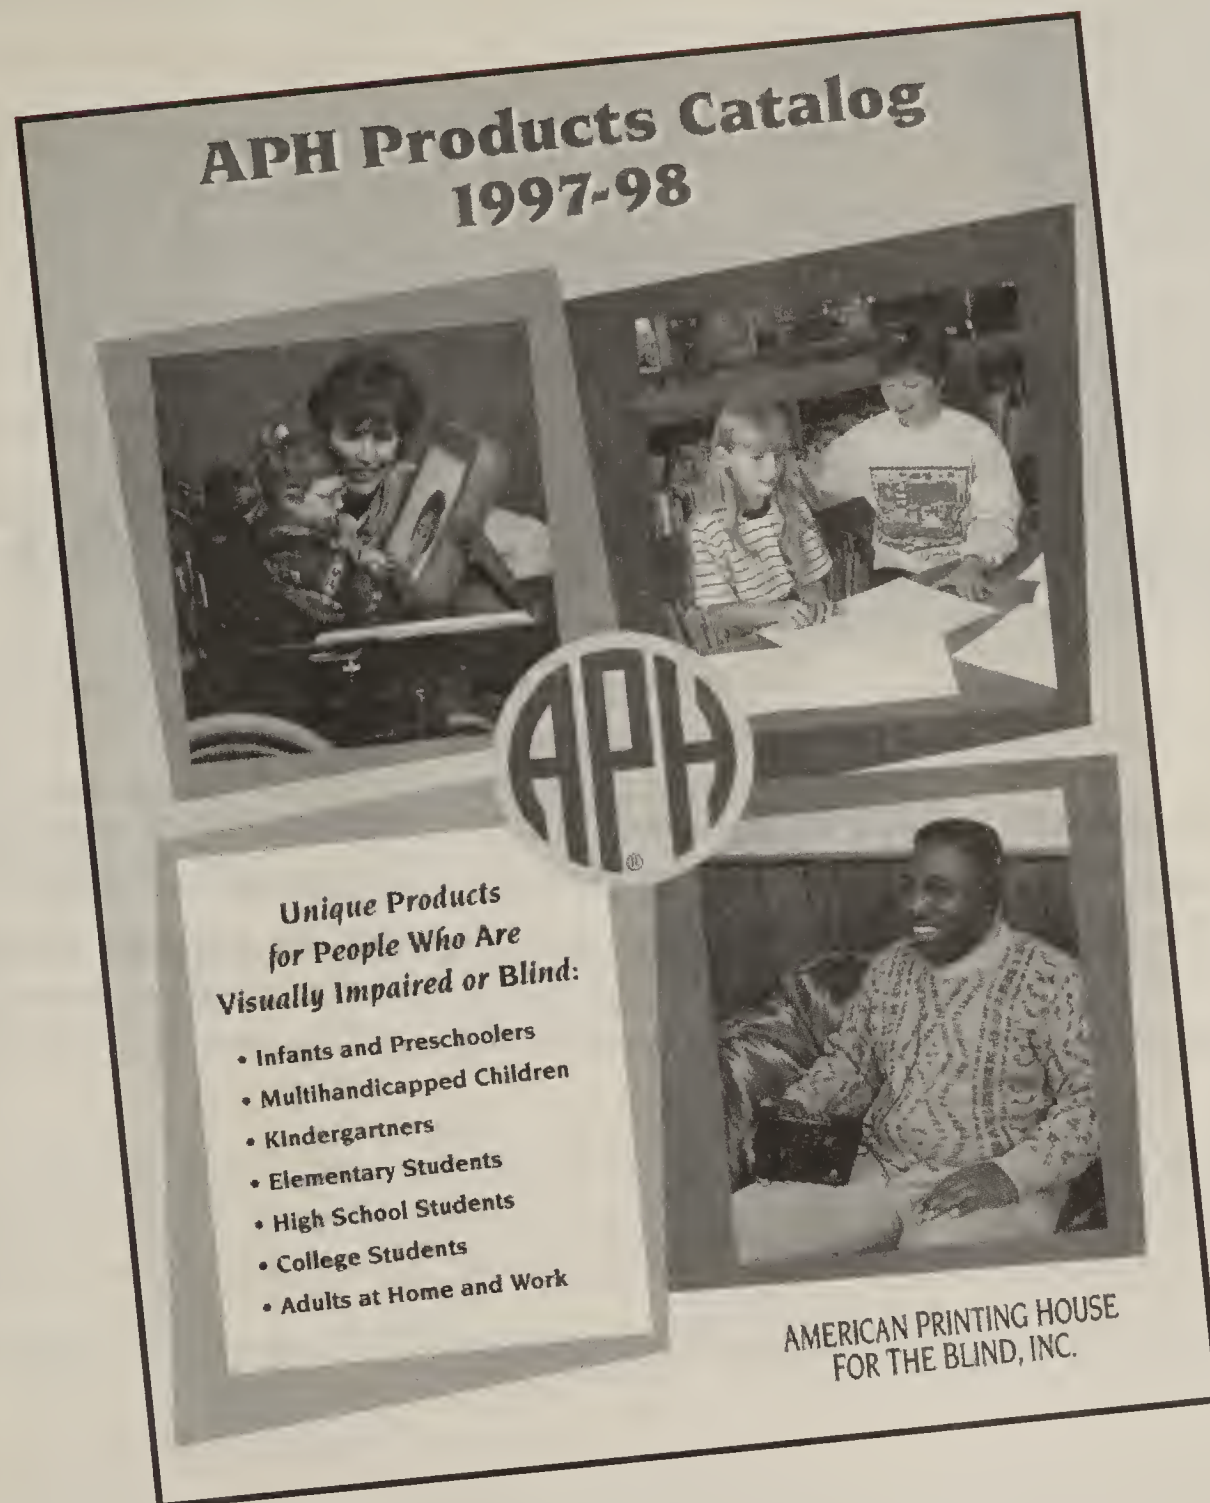

Works that the artist offers for sale are often purchased by visitors to the exhibit. As funds become available, APH purchases artwork from APH InSights for its own permanent collection.

Tactile Treasures: Math and Language Concepts for Young Children with Visual Impairments

Tactile Treasures: Math and Language Concepts for Young Children with Visual Impairments is a new, informal assessment and teaching tool for use with children with little or no vision at the preschool, kindergarten, or elementary level.

Tactile Treasures helps develop an early understanding of basic concepts and vocabulary that are prerequisites for reading and math. By pairing the tactile graphics of thermoformed real objects with included descriptive scripts/stories, over 90 concepts related to shape, size, comparison of two or more objects, amount, position, and page orientation can be introduced and reinforced.

Description

Tactile Treasures consists of 79 thermoformed sheets featuring tactile pictures created from real objects that illustrate math and language concepts. The types of thermoformed objects are numerous: from pretzels, buttons, and rings to zippers, scissors, and shells. The variety of objects depicted adds interest, encourages exploration, and helps broaden vocabulary.

In most cases, a given concept is presented twice on a single tactile page that is divided by a raised bar, but occasionally an entire page is used to adequately convey a concept. An accompanying teacher's guidebook provides two suggested scripts or stories for every concept introduced. The tactile pages are very versatile and can be used to introduce related concepts other than those presented in the provided scripts.

Tactile Treasures can also be easily adapted for the low vision child by simply outlining the thermoformed objects with a permanent marker.

The Braille Connection

APH introduces The Braille Connection: A Braille Reading and Writing Program for Former Print Users, which is designed to teach former adult and teenage print readers how to read braille, and how to adapt it to their lives.

This program is the result of a joint collaboration of the American Printing House for the Blind (APH) and the National Federation of the Blind (NFB). It moves quickly through tactual discrimination; on to Grade 1 Braille, which corresponds to print; and then through Grade 2 Braille, the standard code for braille books and magazines.

Note: The instructional program is designed to be used under the supervision of a qualified braille teacher. The Braille Connection is partially based on material from APH's Read Again program and NFB's McDuffy Reader.

ColorTest: Talking Color Analyzer for People Who Are Blind or Color-blind.

ColorTest is an innovative new hand-held device which helps you distinguish colors independently. It uses a clear, human voice to announce the color of any object placed in contact with its sensitive detector. ColorTest is able to sense a wide spectrum of colors and report the results through its built-in speaker. It senses up to 150 different nuances of color. It also detects patterns, brightness, and contrast.

ColorTest has a great variety of uses

ColorTest enables people who are visually impaired to select their own wardrobe. It can be used to determine the color of a shirt or find out if it is bright, dark, plain or patterned. ColorTest can help you shop for a product according to the color of its packaging, or differentiate a ripe fruit or vegetable from an unripe one. In an office setting, ColorTest can be used to differentiate such items as colored folders, forms, or floppy disks.

ColorTest can also identify:

- intensity of brightness
- sources of light
- natural versus artificial light

How does ColorTest work?

ColorTest has an "artificial eye" that senses color and can identify 150 nuances of it. The "eye" of the ColorTest consists of a small lamp and several sensors. The lamp emits a light-beam when the measuring button is pressed. If the opening is covered by an object, some light will be absorbed and some will be reflected. The light reaches the sensors where they detect the predominant color of the light reflected.

Additional features

ColorTest will also report the general tendency of a color such as "dark-blue, with tones of gray." In addition, ColorTest provides a detailed color analysis which includes specific values of brightness, hue, and saturation. ColorTest recognizes brightness and contrast then reports results by means of about 1000 varying tone signals. After about five seconds the device shuts itself off automatically with a deep tone-signal. Other features include the users ability to check the status of the rechargeable battery and adjust the speaker volume to four different levels.

Use ColorTest for school projects, in the office, or at home for such uses as matching clothing.

One year full warranty

ColorTest includes a one year full-warranty extending from the date of the invoice. APH will either repair or replace the device free of charge. Warranty does not apply in cases of customer modification, misuse, or abuse of APH products.

Included with your new ColorTest

Included with your new ColorTest is a leather carrying case, a cassette instruction manual, a quick reference of button layout and function, battery charger and a color chart.

ColorTest: 1-03950-00.....$595.00

Print Instructions (optional):

8-03950-00.....$2.50

Braille Instructions (optional):

We Think It Would Blow Louis Braille's Chaussettes* Off!

The American Printing House for the Blind (APH) has again upgraded the software and hardware for the CARL ET AL Database. We have named this upgraded system "Louis" (pronounced louie) as a celebration and continuation of the work of Louis Braille. We are very pleased with the changes, since we feel they make the database easier for current users as well as opening it up to a whole new group of individuals.

Louis™, the Database of Accessible Materials for People Who Are Blind or Visually Impaired currently lists locations of titles from approximately 200 volunteer, nonprofit, government, and commercial agencies for the blind and visually impaired. There are listings for over 135,000 titles in braille, large print, sound recording, and computer file formats. As with CARL ET AL, users can search Louis by ISBN, title, author, publisher, copyright year, subject, medium, or keyword. Many searching choices are offered in a "fill in the blank" type format. We have made, and will continue to make, modifications to improve usability and speech accessibility.

We currently are offering three ways to access Louis: through the Internet, by direct dial-in, and through our telephone reference service.

The Louis Internet Interface

Via the Internet, go to the APH website at <http://www.aph.org/> Choose the link "Search Louis". This access is free of charge.

The Louis Direct Dial-in Interface

We are aware that not everyone who needs access to Louis has Internet access, or perhaps their speech software does not work with Internet access. We are also offering a direct dial-in interface to Louis for such situations. We provide free, pre-configured telecommunications software and a toll-free line for direct dial-in. The software we have chosen for telecommunications is CTE (known to individual users as COMMO), an efficient, user friendly telecommunications software written especially for use with speech synthesizers. If you would like to receive this software, please mail or fax a request to Christine Anderson, Resource Services Manager, American Printing House for the Blind. The fax number is 1-502-899-2363. This access, just like the Internet access, is free of charge.

Louis Telephone Reference Service

We have always offered a telephone reference service for accessing this data. We will continue to do so. If you do not have computer access, you can call 1-800-223-1839 toll free and ask for Resource Services. If you have more than five titles that need to be searched, you can fax the request to 1-502-899-2363, attention Resource Services. The Resource Services staff will be happy to help you find your books and materials. Telephone searches are free of charge.

Access to Louis is free to all individuals; however, we are asking for an annual contribution of $300.00 from major agencies and schools that submit titles and search Louis. We hope that you will, as you always have, continue to support this valuable service.
